

“Sweet Perfume”

Written by: C.E. Zink
Copyright © 2007 BHR

As heard on Acoustic Blue’s recording “Workin’ Man”.

- 1) Taking everything with you, when you left me,
You thought I, would never think of you,
But you left something I just can’t get rid of,
It’s the fragrance of a heart that’s broke in two,

Chorus:

Sweet perfume on the pillow that’s beside me,
Sweet perfume that’s all that’s left of you,
That broken heart forgot to take one memory,
And I keep seeing you when I smell your sweet perfume,

- 2) There’s a picture on the wall, of our wedding,
And there’s a letter underneath your golden band,
You say you’re tired of all the heartache,
And you hope someday that I will understand,

Acoustic Blue

www.acousticblueonline.com